When has community seemed too small to feed your spiritual hungers? What made it feel restrictive?

How do you choose new persons to get to know?
Where is God in that?

What is it about a community that makes you feel safe to reveal your real self?

What would make that effort of seeking new relationships more rewarding for you?

When and how has some community enlarged your life or given you a new, satisfying direction for it?

What would drive you away from developing a new relationship further?
