ARTICLE I. Name of Diocese

The Diocese shall be known and distinguished by the name of THE DIOCESE OF EASTTENNESSEE.

ARTICLE II. Recognition of the Authority of The Episcopal Church

The Constitution of The Episcopal Church is hereby acceded to and adopted, and its authority fully recognized and acknowledged.

ARTICLE III. Meetings of the Convention

Sec. 1. The Convention is hereby established as the legislative body of the Diocese, and it shall exercise such powers at its annual or special meetings as are not held by the Bishop or other entity of the Diocese.

Sec. 2. Membership in the Convention shall be determined in accordance with Article IV of this Constitution and the Canons of the Diocese.

Sec. 3. The Annual Meeting of the Convention shall be held at such time and place as shall have been appointed by action of a preceding meeting of the Convention. The Bishop, or if there be no Bishop, the Standing Committee, for any good or urgent cause moving thereto, may change the time and place appointed.

Sec. 4. Special meetings of the Convention may be called by the Ecclesiastical Authority. At least thirty days' notice shall be given of the time and place of, and the business to be transacted at, such meeting to all the Clergy entitled to seats and to all Parishes entitled to representation. No other business shall be transacted than that stated in the notice of such meeting.

ARTICLE IV. The Membership of the Convention

The membership of the Convention shall be composed of members of the Clergy canonically resident in the Diocese and Delegates elected as members, constituting one deliberative body, and each shall be entitled to a seat and vote in the Convention. Each Parish and College Chapel in union with the Diocese shall be entitled to representation in the Convention by Delegates in such numbers as shall be prescribed by Canon; provided, no member of the Clergy shall be entitled to a vote in the Convention if otherwise prohibited by this Constitution or Canon; and provided, that any Parish ceasing, in the judgment of the Convention or as provided by Canon, to function as such shall be suspended from representation therein. Provision shall be made by Canon for the adjudication of any cases arising hereunder.

ARTICLE V. Quorum

One-third of all Clergy canonically and physically resident in the Diocese and one-third of all the delegates entitled to seats and votes, including at least one Delegate from a majority of congregations in union with the Diocese, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at meetings of the Convention. A majority of those present at a meeting of the Convention may adjourn.

ARTICLE VI. Clergy and Delegates to Deliberate in One Body

In all matters that shall come before the Convention, the Clergy and Delegates shall deliberate in one body, and decisions shall be by a majority vote of those present, provided that upon the request of twenty-five percent of those registered of either the Clergy or Delegates the Convention shall vote separately by the Clergy and Delegates, and a majority vote of each shall be necessary for approval.

ARTICLE VII. The President

Sec. 1. The Bishop shall be ex-officio President of the Convention, and may make any motion, but shall not enter into debate; the Bishop may deliver sentiments on any subject after it has been discussed, and before any vote thereon.

Sec. 2. The Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, shall be ex-officio Vice-President of the Convention, and, in case of the absence of the Bishop or inability to act by reason of any cause, the Vice-President shall exercise all the powers and be subject to all the limitations provided in Section 1.

ARTICLE VIII. The Secretary and Treasurer

The Secretary shall be elected annually, and it shall be the duty of the Secretary to record the proceedings of the Convention, to notify the Parishes generally of the time and place of meeting of the Convention, to preserve its Journals and records, to attest the public proceedings of the body, and faithfully deliver into the hands of the successor Secretary all books and papers relative to the concerns of the Convention which may be in the possession of such person.

Sec. 2. The Treasurer shall be elected annually, and it shall be the duty of the Treasurer to receive and disburse the funds of the Convention, by the order thereof, and to render an account of transactions to each annual meeting of the Convention.

ARTICLE IX. The Standing Committee

Sec 1. There shall be a Standing Committee of the Diocese of six persons, consisting of three Clergy and three Lay Members who shall be Confirmed Communicants in Good Standing. The term of each member of the Standing Committee shall be three years, and at each annual meeting of the Convention, one Clergy and one Lay Member shall be elected to replace those members whose terms have expired. The commencement and expiration dates of the terms of office of such persons shall be as provided by the Canons. The Standing Committee shall have the power to fill any vacancy in its body until the next annual meeting of the Convention, with the approval of the Bishop and Council, at which time a person will be elected to fill the unexpired term if there be one. In each case the new member shall be of the same order, Lay or Clergy, as the member leaving the Committee. The Committee shall be empowered to perform all other acts which may be required of it by the Constitution and Canons of the Episcopal Church or the Convention of this Diocese. A member shall be ineligible for re-election for one year after the completion of two successive full three-year terms. At the conclusion of the annual meeting of the Convention the Standing Committee shall meet to elect a President from its members and to conduct such other business as may be appropriate.

ARTICLE X. Wardens and Vestry

Sec. 1. Each Parish of the Diocese shall elect or select a Vestry, consisting of adult Confirmed Communicants in Good Standing, who shall be registered communicants of the Parish at the time of election or selection. The time and manner of such election, and the number of Vestry members, shall be prescribed by Canon.

Sec. 2. The Vestry shall elect a Senior Warden and a Junior Warden out of its own body. At its option, however, a Parish, by by-law, may permit the selection of the Senior Warden by other procedures. Immediately after an election, the Convention shall proceed to sign the testimonials.

ARTICLE XII. Constitution, How Amended

Any proposition for the alteration or amendment of this Constitution must be made in writing, and assented to by a majority of the members in Convention. The foregoing limitation applies only to voting members.

Sec. 8. The Council shall elect a Secretary who shall perform such duties as may be required by the Council. With the permission of the Bishop, any person employed by the Diocese, not a member of the Council, may act as Secretary.

Sec. 9. The Council shall meet with the Bishop not less frequently than four times per year, one of which may be immediately prior to or immediately following the meeting of the Convention. The dates, times and places of all regular meetings shall be set by the Council. Special meetings of the Council may be called by the Bishop, or by the Secretary on request of any four elected members of the Council. Written Notice of all meetings shall be given each member by the Secretary at least ten days prior to the meetings, except the meeting immediately after adjournment of the Convention. Said Written Notice may be given by electronic means. A majority of the elected members shall constitute a quorum.

In addition to scheduled, in-person meetings, action may be taken in the following ways:

(a) Any member of the Council may participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all members participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. Examples include teleconference by speakerphone and various types of online audio communication, which may, but need not, include video communication. A Council member participating in a meeting by this means is deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

(b) Action may be taken without a meeting. If all Council members consent to taking such action without a meeting, the affirmative vote of the number of Council members that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting is the action of the board. The action must be evidenced by one (1) or more written consents describing the action taken, signed by each Council member, and included in the minutes filed with the corporate records reflecting the action taken. Action taken under this section is effective when the last Council member signs the consent, unless the consent specifies a different effective date. A consent signed under this section has the effect of a meeting vote and may be described as such in any document.

(c) A Council member may waive any notice required in this section. Except as provided hereafter, the waiver must be in the form of a document, signed by the Council member entitled to the notice, and filed with the minutes or the corporate records. A Council member's attendance at or participation in a meeting waives any required notice of the meeting unless the Council member at the beginning of the meeting (or promptly upon his/her arrival) objects to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting and does not thereafter vote for or assent to action taken at the meeting.

Sec. 10. (a) The policies of the Diocese as determined by the Bishop and Council shall be implemented by the Bishop. The Council shall provide for the organization of the program and the work of the Diocese.

(b) The Council shall be responsible for the receipt, administration, and disbursement of funds of the Diocese as it deems advisable, consistent with the budget adopted at the Convention. The Council shall prepare and submit to the Convention an annual budget to carry out the program and work of the Diocese, for the support of the Episcopate, for Diocesan Administration, and for support of The Episcopal Church. It shall fix the compensation and allowances of all persons paid from diocesan funds, subject only to change at the Convention. The annual budget prepared by the Council shall be based upon the reasonably expected income of the Diocese, including anticipated receipts from the voluntary giving of the Parishes and other donors. In adopting a final budget, the members of the Convention may refer all or portions thereof to the Council for readjustment.

Sec. 11. The Council shall submit to each annual meeting of the Convention a report of the work done under its supervision for the preceding year. It shall make and preserve a full record of all its acts.

Sec. 12. The Council may request reports and statements from any Parish, Worshiping Community, Organization or Institution of the Diocese, or from Organizations and Institutions of any Parish, as it may deem necessary or desirable, and such reports and statements shall be given when requested by the Council.

Sec. 13. If the receipts of the Diocese during the calendar year exceed the amounts required to meet the budget as adopted at the annual meeting of the Convention, the Council may authorize the expenditure of the excess receipts. In like manner, the Council may reduce or eliminate items of the budget if receipts are less than those previously anticipated.

Sec. 14. The Bishop may appoint and remove all persons to be employed by the Diocese, but their salaries shall be fixed by the Council. At each meeting of the Council, the Bishop shall report to the Council all appointments or removals made pursuant to this section which have occurred since the last meeting of the Council.

Sec. 15. No person may incur any pecuniary liability against the Diocese or the Council in carrying on his or her work, which shall be a charge against the Diocese or the Council, or the property of the Diocese or of any Parish, Worshiping Community, School, Organization or Institution, unless such charge be included in an approved budget, or upon the written authority of the Council.

Sec. 16. The Bishop and Council shall provide for the organization of the program and the work of the Diocese through the creation of such commissions, task forces, and committees that it deems necessary for the administration of the program and work of the Diocese and shall designate the title, define the structure, establish the duties and responsibilities, and provide for the finances of each commission, task force, and committee.

Sec. 17. The administration of the program and work of the Diocese shall be the responsibility of the Bishop, and the work of all commissions, task forces, and committees shall be subject to the Bishop's executive and administrative authority. The Bishop and Council shall make provision for such administrative assistants, canons, deputies, and archdeacons, including their compensation and expenses, as shall be required to enable the Bishop to carry on the administration of the Diocese.

Sec. 18. Each commission, task force, and committee shall include both Clergy and Lay Members, and the members thereof shall be appointed by the Bishop, who shall designate a Chairman. All Lay members shall be Communicants in Good Standing. Each commission, task force, and committee shall keep minutes of its meetings, file copies of them with the Secretary of the Bishop and Council, make such reports to the Bishop and Council as it may require, and upon request of the Bishop, file an annual report of its activities with the Secretary for inclusion in the Journal.

Sec. 19. Nothing contained herein shall restrict the right of the Bishop to appoint such committees as the Bishop deems advisable. The Bishop shall make a report of the appointment of any such committee at the next meeting of the Bishop and Council following its creation.

CANON 8: Committee on Constitution and Canons

The Committee may also make recommendations at the Convention for amendments to the Constitution or these Canons for the operation of the Diocese.

Sec. 3. All proposed amendments to the Constitution or Canons of the Diocese shall be submitted to the Committee on Constitution and Canons for its consideration and recommendation(s) before they are considered at the Convention.

Sec. 1. The Bishop and Council may enter into agreements with other Dioceses respecting matters of common interest and concern.

Sec. 2. If an agreement is entered into pursuant to Section 1, the Bishop and Council shall elect representatives of the Diocese to any joint board or committee which may be created by the agreement.

Sec. 3. (a) Any funds required from this Diocese for funding agreements under this Canon shall be included in the Annual Budget and approved by the Bishop and Council.

(b) No assets of this Diocese may be used for the performance of any agreement entered into under this Canon except with the express approval of the Convention or the Bishop and Council.

Sec. 4. Every agreement entered into pursuant to this Canon shall contain a provision permitting the termination of participation by this Diocese upon reasonable Written Notice.
